The Passage

One interesting topic of this voyage will be the ship itself - a container vessel owned by a traditional German company, with 17.000 tdw for the trading area an exceptional one.

The construction can be described as spacious. Some guest lounges and four nice cabins will make the journey with this modern container vessel a unique experience. The crew is happy to travel with passengers.

There are many things to see on these journeys: Very exciting is the passage through the Kiel Canal with its locks and you will be able to watch other vessel passing by very closely.

At the moment, the ship will go mostly to St. Petersburg, but also ports in Poland or Finland like Helsinki and Kotka. It is also possible that the ship will sail to other ports in Scandinavia and the Baltic States.

Subject to change without notice.

Visa: a E-Visa (without costs) for St. Petersburg is necessary. You will get all necessary information with the booking documents.
