The Passage

You pass the English Channel with its white chalk cliffs at Dover and Beachy Head, with the light bottle green water and the shipping traffic which you can often watch from close-by.

It takes the ship only two days to northern Spain. These days the vessels often do not run directly into Bilbao, they stop at Santource. From here you can catch a suburban train every 30 minutes into Bilbao's centre.

Enjoy the Spanish way of life on an outing into the city. Take a stroll through the shops or watch the life in the old city while drinking a typical Spanish coffee. The Guggenheim Museum and the old market hall are tourist attractions in the city.

After going through the Channel again, you head for the river Themse. Tilbury - a typical English port city - is the goal.

Embarkation at Rotterdam: The terminal of the ship can only be reached with a professional crew service. You will receive the contact details with the booking. The fare has to be paid directly to the driver.
