The Passage
Varied round trip in the Mediterranean Sea from Barcelona to Morocco and around the Iberian Peninsula with many ports!

In Leixoes, you can easily reach the market hall and the city centre with it´s shops and cafés by foot and in Lisbon the vessel lies not far away from the old city.
The port of Leixoes is fascinating - the largest container terminal, unlike most other ports, is located in the inner port, so the ship first has to pass through a long harbor canal and a bascule bridge.

Even from a distance, the largest mosque in the world can be seen on the shore of the "white city" of Casablanca. A stroll through the winding old town conveys pure Orient.

Casablanca and Tanger are called twice on most trips.
