The Passage

One or more ports from the above list may be called, mostly 2 ports within a week. At the moment ports in Sweden (Halmstad, Gothenburg) or Poland (Gdynia) are in schedule.

The charterer may at any time - even at short notice - change the route to other ports in North Sea or Baltic Sea.

There are many things to see on these journeys: Very exciting is the passage through the Kiel Canal with its locks and you will be able to watch other vessel passing by very closely.

If you call Sweden or Scaninavian ports:

To sail through the skerries is a very special adventure: from deck you can see belts of reed, lonely coves, small islands with summer houses and piers so closely that it seems you can touch them. You can smell both, forest and sea - typically Scandinavian.

Alcohol is forbidden on board.
